

John McNay Outstanding Faculty Leadership Award

The Outstanding Faculty Leadership Award recognizes a faculty member who has provided extraordinary leadership contributions across various dimensions of university service, thereby advancing the overall excellence of the campus. This award honors individuals who exemplify a commitment to collaborative decision-making.

Eligibility

- A faculty member at one of the fourteen public Ohio universities.
- Must have a demonstrated dedicated service of significant value in diverse situations and over an extended period (examples include committee work, chairing task forces, participation in the senate, and engagement in outreach activities).
- Current members of the Ohio Faculty Council are not eligible for this award.

Evaluation Criteria

- Showcase the candidate's enduring commitment to shared governance.
- Highlight the candidate's ability to collaborate effectively with multiple constituencies.
- Illustrate the candidate's commitment to advancing campus excellence through exceptional leadership in a service capacity.
- Emphasize exemplary leadership skills that facilitate groups of individuals in advancing innovative initiatives or necessary change.
